

A Thousand Miles

Arran

^G From Wexford to Sligo
^D Through Dublin town
^{Am} Your green fields and ^{Bm} dark moors
^C Are deep in my heart
^G From Cork to Derry
^D Through Donegal
^{Am Bm C D} I will never feel apart

^{G5} I could sail a ^{G6no3} thousand miles
^{G5} Meet a ^{G6no3} thousand ^{D5/A} strangers
^{Bm5+} See a thousand smiles
^{G5} I could ramble on
^{G6no3} Through the British Isles
^{G5} Forever and ^{G6no3} ever ^{D5/A}
^G I could sail a thousand miles

I could sing a thousand songs
Learn a thousand tunes
I could sing along
Sweet Eirin, that's where I belong
Forever and ever
I could sing a thousand songs

From Wexford to Sligo
Through Dublin town
Your green fields and dark moors
Are deep in my heart
From Cork to Derry
Through Donegal
I will never feel apart

I could dive in a thousand seas
Nothing would compare
To your loughs and your streams
I'd miss the sound
Of your gentle breeze
All over the world

I could dive a thousand seas
I could drink a thousand ales
None will have the taste
Of your storms and your gales
Sweet Eirin, always prevails
Forever and ever
I could drink a thousand ales

From Wexford to Sligo
Through Dublin town
Your green fields and dark moors
Are deep in my heart
From Cork to Derry

^C Even when I'm far away
^{Em} Not a memory slips away
^{Am} I remember how it feels
^G To walk along your hills
^{Em} Sweet Eirin, I'll come back to you ^C
^{Am} You know in my heart ^{Bm}
^C I'll always be true ^D

I could sail a thousand miles
Meet a thousand strangers
See a thousand smiles
I could ramble on
Through the British Isles
Forever and ever

From Wexford to Sligo
Through Dublin town
Are deep in my heart
From Cork to Derry
I will never feel apart (bis)
