In the guise of a man

And yet so close to me

I see it rise, in a fool's disguise

How could it be

That it looks so bright

When comes the night

So distant and free

While it's hot as hell

Hard as a shell

Treacherous as the sea

He's a riddle in the guise of a man
Mysterious, mischievous
Will I ever know which one
A tender heart or an inglorious scam
And when I think of him

Is it nightmare or dream ?

A diamond stone with a bluish tone
As perfect as a rose
With a carbon soul
As graphite and coal never shows
Oh it looks so neat
In pressure and heat
But god only knows
If it melts away
What it will betray
What it will disclose

```
Gmaj11/A
```
Tell me who he is
```
Gmaj11/D
```
Tell me who am I
```
Gmaj11/E
```
Tell me is it true
```
Gmaj11/D
```
Or am I turning blind

Tell me
Tell me who he is
Tell me who am I
Tell, is it true
Or am I turning blind
Is it untrue, is it in my mind
Should I just say goodbye

The morning star, is so afar
And yet so close to me
I see it rise, in a fool's disguise
How could it be

When comes the night
So distant and free
While it's hot as hell
Hard as a shell
Treacherous as the sea
